SPONSOR AN AFRICAN SCHOLAR

Cynthia Bwire

She is 16 year of age and currently a full time day scholar at Maweni Sec School. Cynthia performed very well on her previous exam whereby she managed to score a mean grade of B plain. She will finish her secondary education on November 2020.

Family Back ground

Cynthia stays with both of her parents in the slums area of Kongowea north part of Mombasa. Her parents are not working, her dad used to work as a security guard but he was recently retrenched from work. He is trying hard to find another job although He is not lucky until now.

Her dad managed to enrol Cynthia to secondary school when he was still at work. Cynthia is the second born in a family of 4 children which is composed of 3 girls and one boy. One of her sibling is in form three while the others are in primary school. Currently the family has no source of income hence its hard for them even to afford one meal a day neither paying rent to the landlady. Her father feels that if her kids are able to attend school the might be of help the coming days. He goes from every corner of Mombasa in search for casual jobs which he rarely finds. Cynthia is always sent home because of fees that's why she decided to visits the SAAS office to ask for help.

They stay in one room Swahili house which has neither electricity nor running water.

Educational Background

Cynthia future ambition is to become a Nurse. She like studying languages and mathematics. She also enjoy ball games and acting in drama.
