SPONSOR AN AFRICAN SCHOLAR

MARTIN KOMBE

Seventeen-year-old Martin is currently a Form 2 student.

His dream is to become a Doctor one day.

Martin is the second born in a family of 6 children: two boys and four girls. They stay with their parents in a single room without power or running water.

His father is a farmer, while his mother is a house help. The little his parents make is barely enough to cater to the family's needs.

Martin's first year in high school was challenging, as he was always sent home to collect school fees, but he is optimistic that things will change for the better.

He promises to work hard in school if granted a scholarship opportunity.

His favourite subjects are Chemistry and Agriculture. During his free time, he enjoys playing football.
